World Game Championship 2011: Cosplay Contest Rules and Guidelines

Eligibility

- Each entrant must register in advance through WGCosplay@gmail.com, to ensure placement in the contest.
- Each entrant must read and agree to follow all rules of the cosplay contest.
- Entrants 13 and under must have their parents' permission to enroll, and MUST be accompanied by a legal guardian or relative of age at the show.
- Abu Dhabi Anime Club's staff may enter Cosplay contest as long as staff-related responsibilities are fulfilled.
- There are a total of 50 entry slots, allotted on first come, first serve basis.
- By registering for the Cosplay contest, all participants agree to allow World Game Championship & Abu Dhabi Anime Club to use their images for promotional purposes, both photographs and video. Photographs of winning entries will be shown at other WGC & ADAC events.

General Precautions

- No harassment or misconduct will be tolerated, violators will be disqualified.
- This contest is being held during World Gaming Competition, which is a family friendly event. Which Implies that there should be:
 - No nudity. All costumes need to be tasteful and the barest minimum of coverage that will be allowed at the event will be that of a knee-high skirt.
 - No profanity. All music and pre-recorded materials will be screened and all violators of this rule will be disqualified
 - No Indecent activity or contact—real or implied. Offensive language of any kind is not allowed. (Racial epithets or Sexual humor is not allowed)
 - Entrants must abide by the UAE's policy on behavior and attire in public places.
- No jumping on or off stage—please use the officially designated stage entrances and exits. ADAC staff will be present to assist performers on and off stage.
- No fire, flame, smoke, fog, dry ice, wind machines, lasers, pressurized gases or liquids.
- No messy substances—wet, dry, or oily—on stage.
- All cosplay related weapons must be made from safe materials. Any harmful weapons and/or their components such as real knives or air guns will not be accepted.
- All convention policies must be upheld during the entirety of the Cosplay competition. Anyone breaking the rules will be disqualified.
- Anyone who does not show up prepared will be disqualified. Check your costume and technical requirements before coming.
- If all 50 slots are full, there will be a waiting list for additional entrants. If anyone drops out or is disqualified then those on the waiting list will be allowed entrance on a first come, first serve basis.
- If for whatever reason one contestant is removed from competition for any violation the entire group will be disqualified as well.
- Please completely fill out and sign all paper work needed to enter into the contest. The failure to complete paperwork may hinder the judge's ability to judge or cause delays.
- All decisions made by event organizer or sponsors are final.

Judging

The contestants will be judged based on two qualities: Skits and Costume Workmanship.

- Entrants may enter the stage, when their names are called.
 - Walk-on presentation is required from entrant, while the host will introduce and comment on the entrant's costumes and the character they are cosplaying.
 - Each contestant will also be required to perform a skit or an impression related to the character they are cosplaying.
- All cosplays must reflect the theme of the convention — Anime, Video games or Comics. The panel will consist of judges, who will be designated with the theme of their expertise.

Skits

- Skits or impressions will be judged mainly on its likeness with the character.
- Points given on skits are for performances only and reflect the quality of the performances only.
- Skits for each participant shall be no longer than 2 minutes
- Pre-recorded music and dialogue are preferred and strongly encouraged, but not required.
 - Note: each entrant is allowed 2 minutes only performance on stage.
 - Mp3 format is a must
 - Please send MP3 with filled and signed WGC 2011 Cosplay Registration Form by email: WGCosplay@gmail.com
- Each participant is required to provide three remarks that the host will read during your walk on presentation. The remarks can only be about the costume, character and self.
- Props or other items brought on stage must be approved by the ADAC staff and must be removed at the end of the skit.

Costume Workmanship

- Costumes will be judged mainly on its likeness with the 'appearance' of the character.
- The workmanship points are based on the design, construction, execution, and general presentation of the costume. They have no relation with the points of the skits.
- Costume Workmanship entrants do a walk-on presentation, this is to ensure that all entrants are able to display their costume entries on stage in some manner.
- Multiple costumes made by the same person may be entered in the costume competition so long as each costume appears on a different entrant.
- Complete purchased or rented costumes will not be given points on design and construction. A portion of the costume (such as tights, belts and shoes) may be from purchased finished goods, but at least 4/6 components of the complete costume should have been constructed by the entrant, in order to achieve design and construction points.
- The creator(s) of the costume must be present at and mentioned in registration form.
- Bring documentation of the character's costume for judging. Documentation may include photos, posters, action figure or any medium that clearly shows what the character is supposed to look like.

I, hereby declare that I have read all competition guidelines and by signing this form I agree to abide by them during the competition
